The Lutheran Elementary School Board of Divine Grace will decide on each applicant according to the criteria found in the Enrollment Policy. Divine Grace members need to complete this application once upon the initial enrollment of each child. Non-member families need to apply each year. In addition, approval of non-member students who are reapplying will be decided by looking at their church attendance, the family's activities in the school, the prompt payment of tuition, family cooperation in our educational process, the attendance of the Bible Information Class/Introduction to Lutheran Christianity Class, the family's interest in our church, and space limitations in the classrooms.
